Rector's notes – JULY 2022

These notes are written straight after Murdoch Day, when in spite of a dodgy weather forecast huge crowds came out to celebrate Redruth's heritage – a really 'feel-good' day! After several years wondering about it, I had finally asked David Doble to make me a faith swing-o-meter easel as a discussion starter, and I set up a stall piggy-backing on FP's bric-a-brac stall next to Hatter's tea room on Fore Street. The question at the top was 'Does God Exist?' and people were invited to move a pointer to one of the answers: 'No, there is no God; Probably not; I'd like to think so; Probably, yes Yes, I know he does!

It was great to be out there, talking to people of all stages of faith and none, and we ended up with several baptism bookings and a wedding enquiry, and people wanting to know more about faith.

What it proved to me again is that many, many people are interested in faith, but that we need to find other ways to engage with them, rather than wait for them to come into our churches. Next time I think we might try a more open question (eg 'What would you say to God?'). Expect to see it at church fetes etc!

On the Way

This links to our Deanery On the Way plan, which moved forward a step last week, with Deanery Synod voting to support the plan before sending it up to the Bishops and Archdeacons for their approval. The plan has a very strong vision statement, which is Living God's abundant life; sharing the good news of Jesus. This sharing the good news of Jesus (what we call evangelism) is something Jesus himself tasked us with in the Great Commission at his ascension, and it's something each of us has benefited from when somebody introduced us to faith - whatever age that might have been. Plainly, it's the key to growing our churches too. There are all sorts of ideas afoot about how we can do this in a way that doesn't frighten people away, but rather feels inviting and natural – so stay tuned for more information, when the final plan is agreed.

A new ministry

We hope all this makes it an exciting time to start a curacy! By the time you read this, Chris Harrigan will be a freshly ordained deacon, and he and his family will have been welcomed to this brand-new start for them all. Please continue to pray for Chris, Becca, Izzy and Isaac as they adjust to life in Redruth, that God would bless them, and that their being here, in turn, would bless us and many others in our communities.

With my prayers and best wishes
Caspar Bush (Team Rector)

THE ANGLICAN DIACONATE

On June 24 2022 Christopher will be made a Deacon. The Diaconate is an ancient ministry beginning with the seven deacons in The Acts of the Apostles. Those Seven deacons, of which Saint Stephen was one, were chosen to make sure that the poor and the hungry were fed and cared for. The first Apostles were too busy preaching and teaching and so the deacons (the servants) were needed for pastoral care.

In the Anglican Church today, deacons are often seen as 'priests in waiting' but their ministry is much more powerful. It is an opportunity, not only to learn about priesthood, but also an opportunity to be, as said in the prayer for deacons, to be a HERALD of God's love in the 'dark places'. A deacon is not confined by the bells of the altar. A deacon can stay with the sick, and the dying, can share in joys and successes without being called to the altar. A deacon has time, time for people, time to care, time to provide. The ministry of a deacon is a wonderful chance to be with the servant of the servants of God, THE LAITY.

Deacons wear their stole across their heart as a sign of their love for the people, and as a reminder of the money bag which the first deacons carried to provide care for the outcasts. May God bless Christopher and his family as together they begin a new life in Redruth; and may God bless us all as we receive the ministry of a deacon.

ST STEPHEN'S TRELEIGH

David Rowe has completed his sponsored walk of 6.5 miles of walking round the harbour and beach at Portreath. He was joined by his daughter and the dog although I'm not sure if the dog walked all the way. He is now busy collecting in the sponsorship money in aid of the hall improvements and we will give you an update on the amount in the next month.

On Sunday the 12th we held a small party after the service to say goodbye to Maureen Robinson and her daughter Judy. Maureen is moving home to live with Judy. She will be sorely missed by us all at Treleigh but she goes with our love and very best wishes for her new adventure in Kent. God Speed Maureen.

On Monday the 13th I was privileged to welcome into our church two groups of children aged five and seven from Treleigh school along with the RE co-ordinator who told them about different parts of the church starting in the porch which I told them that when the church was closed it became a wayside chapel where anyone could leave a prayer on the notice board which we would then read out at the next service. She then led them into the church and explained why the Font is always near the door and what happens during a baptism. She then led the children further into the church where sitting in the pews she explained what the pulpit was used for and the lectern with why it took the form of an eagle. After she had told them about the Altar, with Caspar's permission the children came to the rail and I gave them a communion wafer. There were about 30 children in each group and they then took photos on their tablets, vying with each other to get the best photo of the Golden Eagle!!!!

ST EUNY

Thank you to all who supported our Benefice lunch for the jubilee, and a huge thank you to Liz and Dick who covered most of the catering. The Jubilee was celebrated on Sunday 5th June with a special bell ringing performance in the evening which was repeated across the country.

As well as a benefice lunch CN4C were also welcomed into the church on the Sunday following the bank holiday weekend, to celebrate with more Jubilee activities and food. Between 35-40 people attended this event, giving them a venue for the family group to gather and feel at home.

St Euny has once again been a popular venue for weddings, with two taking place in the past month. As well as this we have regular visitors wishing to see the place where they were involved with the church family in the past or have ancestors buried in the church yard. It is good to be able to open the doors to these visitors and we are considering how we might be able to have the church open for some time for quiet prayer or reflection at times other than services.

Work on the boundary wall continues. Part has been re-built in the south section, where an unstable area was in urgent need of maintenance. There remains some of the wire fencing behind the tower and this section is due to be restored soon.

Anyone who has visited the church in the past month will have seen the scaffolding which now protects the south west corner of the church. The quinquennial report highlighted the need for some urgent attention here and we await a more detailed surveyor's report. It is clear that the church has been slipping at that corner for some time, but how recent some of the movement is remains to be confirmed. Thanks go to Charles Green for his help and expertise in producing the report and advising us. Our Health and Safety Officer (Charlie Bickford) has attended to the external woodwork which required urgent protection from damp. You might have noticed the new light bulbs in the chandeliers at St Euny. We are delighted with these – a bargain purchase by Charlie which use a substantially lower amount of electricity and are expected to last much longer than the previous type – a double win.

As mentioned in the section from St Andrews we are now thinking about the logistics of the Christmas Tree Festival which we hope to hold across both churches. This will run in December and will have some events in addition to our usual Christmas Season services and activities. We will be looking for groups and organisations in town who might like to support the event by paying for and decorating a tree and who will also enjoy attending associated events. A planning group will start meeting in July and we hope to include anyone who might be interested in offering ideas, time and resources, both from the church family and from our local community. If you are interested in participating, or if you know of someone who might like to join in the planning group, please do let either me (lindabeskeen@gmail.com) or Lez Seth know and we would be delighted to include you in the team.

In fond memory of Mrs. Doreen Reynolds, who passed away on Monday, 13th June, aged 95 years: Doreen had been a member of St. Andrew's Church Pencoys all of her life, having been born in the house next to the church, and was totally devoted to its congregation and its place in the local community until having to spend her last few years in Tremethick House Residential Home, since October 2017. During the 1970s, 80s and 90s she was a faithful and hard-working Churchwarden, an enthusiastic founder-fundraiser for the 'Raise the Roof' project which resulted in a restored roof for the church in 2006, and a keen supporter of youth and musical events. We shall always be grateful for her donation of the lovely flower stand for the sanctuary and the beautiful serpentine nave altar font, used for the first time in 1979. She will be remembered with affection by those who knew her, and we send our love, prayers and condolences to Clive, Margaret, Wilfred and their family. May she rest in peace and rise with Christ in glory.

CHRISTCHURCH LANNER

Christchurch remains open 10.00am – 4.00pm and Holy Communion is celebrated each Sunday at 9.30am, except on the second Sunday when an informal all age event (CHAMP) is held and Holy Communion is at 3.00pm. The weekday Communion remains on Wednesday at 11.00am and follows the Prayer Book rite.

THE JUBILEE

Thank you to everyone who was able to support the Jubilee events that were held at Christchurch. There were celebration mugs, souvenir medals, fizz and vegan crisps, a missing bishop and a riotous sing-a-long over the seventy years of Her Majesty's reign. THANKYOU for all the effort, time and energy that made the events so successful.

THE FILM CLUB

The Film Club re-opened with a new projectionist, Richard, Perran's dad. The first film, "A Royal Affair" was certainly a 'talking point' both historically and emotionally. Due to events, the next film night is delayed by a week and will take place on FRIDAY JULY 1, doors open at 6.30pm and the film starts at 7.00pm. Check the weekly sheet for which film!! Entry is £3.00 and membership for the remainder of the year is £5.00. Ice-cream provided!!

SOCK (Support Our Christ the King)

At the time of going to print, the third SOCK had not taken place, but, if you were there THANKYOU. There was 'Margaret's tea room', BINGO, Designer 'dedicated followers of fashion' clothes and a few bijou stalls. The next SOCK is SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 24, 2.00pm – 4.00pm.

OPEN PANTRY

This has moved inside following the hurricanes which destroyed the cupboard. There is an emergency box outside the church for 'after hours'. THANK YOU for all the generous donations of both cash, vouchers and food. Linda does a great job in keeping everything in date and well presented.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY FROM US ALL TO MARY ANSON !!

ST ANDREW REDRUTH

By the time this edition is printed the Arts Festival 2022 will have been accomplished. This year we have received displays from Redruth School art department as well as art being exhibited by several of our local primary schools, along with some very talented local artists. This is an excellent opportunity to welcome a wide range of people to the church and we hope that this will attract as many as we have had on previous years. Many thanks to all involved, but particularly to Lez who has done most of the mammoth task of organising this year's festival.

The success of the 'Flowers, weddings and baptisms Festival' brought in some funds which, whilst not the purpose of the show, is welcome. Lez has plans for some 'sail banners' which will be generic but useful for all our benefice churches to place outside events to attract passers by. Hopefully this will be one more way of alerting our local community to the life of the church.

Fran is planning some art sessions for 'Come Rain or Shine' in August. These have been very welcome when they have been offered in past years and the range of activities keeps all ages engaged and entertained. Although targeted at the younger ages, older family members have been involved and enjoyed their time, finding it a great way to develop creative skills over the long summer holiday. If anyone who has not been involved would like to help or to attend, please contact Fran or Lez at St Andrew's. All helpers welcome as usual, to share the load. We all sigh when the shops offer Christmas gifts in October, but some activities do need to be prepared well ahead. St Andrew's and St Euny will be holding a benefice Christmas Tree Festival – for more details see the St Euny Section.

Tiddlers / Toddlers will take a break for the summer holiday and resume in September during term time. We have been very pleased with the success of this group since opening up again post-Covid in the autumn and there is a regular group of families who brighten up the crypt with their youngest each Thursday morning. They have bonded and formed friendships and are all helpful and enthusiastic with the tidying up. Every week we have one or two who wail and stamp their feet when the time comes to go home, but they return with smiles and excitement to see their friends the following week

Sue Pearce R.I.P.

Over 45 years ago Sue and Nigel Pearce began attending St Andrew's church along with a number of other 'young people' and their children, Jeff and I among them. This proved to be a life changing experience for us all as strong bonds were created through fellowship, worship and a thirst for knowledge, bonds which have stood the test of time

Sue particularly blossomed and flourished as her faith grew, resulting in her showing great dedication in all the tasks she undertook, but her first priority was always Nigel, her children, Jeni, Anna and Bethany and of course her grandchildren as they appeared one after another.

Sue enjoyed a variety of jobs throughout her working life, often following her love of nature, music and creativity and of course these also directed her interest and service in the church. Sue has always preferred to do things in the background, not wanting to be made a fuss of, just wanting to give her best in everything she undertook.

Over those 45 plus years Sue has used her gifts and talents in many different ways; she has served three stints as Churchwarden, two with Lez Seth and one with Jim Selwood, but always in the background, shying away from being the churchwarden who stood up before the congregation to make announcements. It was really important to Sue that children learnt something about God's love for them and the stories of Jesus' ministry as a good foundation for their future, and so she worked alongside others creating an interesting and educational Sunday Club for them. For those of us who attend St Andrew's regularly we remember the custom of inviting the children to share what they'd been doing during these sessions with the whole congregation at the end of the service – but Sue kept well out of the way whilst they showed off their wonderful creations, especially the cakes, biscuit and bread. During coffee Sue would sidle amongst us quietly advising that it was in our best interests not to eat them!

She was fundamental in establishing Messy Church using her creative skills to their full extent, as well as working with Lez on a sacred space in the Lady Chapel, decorating the windows at Lent and Advent interpreting the scriptures and of course decorating the church with beautiful displays of flowers. The abundance of flowers in church for her funeral was a fitting tribute to Sue from Nigel and the girls.

Sue loved to bake and was renowned for her fantastic birthday cakes for her family and of course the wonderful mince pies at our Christmas Eve service with the children. She must have started to bake them and freeze them soon after the summer, but would you believe it – she didn't like them herself!

Another task she undertook in church for a time was sacristan. A job she loved, quietly preparing the church for communion services, keeping everything spotless and clean, making sure everything was in its right place, and at the same time enjoying the quiet prayerful atmosphere of the church. Sue was a very important and valued member of our study group, always wanting to learn more about her faith and joining in with the Baptist church for their bible study courses. She was a very wise lady and a deep thinker.

There is much more I could say about Sue's faith and service but I'm sure you would all agree with me that Sue was a good and faithful servant, yet she worried that she was doing what God wanted her to do; how do I know she would ask, what if I'm wasting my time, should I be doing more, what does God want us to be doing in the church, why aren't we drawing more people in? You had no need to worry Sue, you did a great job.

Both Sue and Nigel have shown great love and trust in God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit especially during these last few months of Sue's illness. That same love and trust in God who loves us all will sustain Nigel, Jeni, Anna, and Bethany and their families in the days and weeks ahead.

Thank you Sue, for being you and part of all our lives.

Margaret

Book Club

How time flies when you are enjoying yourself or just putting dates in your diary for weeks ahead. It's hard to believe we are halfway through the year already, so perhaps appropriate that we are sharing our thoughts on Ian Mortimer's Outcasts of Time on July 1st. Please do feel free to join us at my home at 10.15 if you enjoy reading (and talking). Below is a synopsis of the book.

In December 1248 the year the Black Death is raging through the country. The narrator, John of Wraymont, a stone carver, already has the plague in his body and he goes in to Exeter Cathedral, his place of work, to pray for help. A disembodied angelic voice like his own offers healing and possible salvation, it at a price. "I will let you live your last six days in the distance of the future. Ninety nine years shall pass before you will return to live the first of your remaining days. Another ninety nine will pass before your second. Five hundred and ninety five years will pass before your sixth and final day, when I will come for you." He and his brother William then start their time travels around Exeter moving between the rivers Exe and Teign: Honyton, Ashburton, Wraymont, the Scorpio stone circle and Dartmoor. Each era melts invisibly into the next, ending with the horror of a bombing raid on Exeter in 1942. At last the journey is over revealing the truth that "home is not a place but a time", and that the crucial element holding all together is love.

If you want to get ahead of time (!) our next book is American Dirt by Jeanine Cummins. Lydia Quixano Perez lives a comfortable life in Acapulco with journalist husband Sebastian and her 8 year old son Luca. Lydia runs a bookstore and one day befriends a charming customer Javier, who appears to have a similar interest in books. However, Javier is revealed to be the kingpin of a drug cartel. Sebastian publishes an expose of Javier's crimes and he and his family are consequently ordered to be slaughtered. Sebastian is killed and Lydia and Luca escape, forced to flee Mexico becoming two of countless undocumented immigrants as they undertake the dangerous journey to the United States . . .

Dates to note in your diary then – July 1st and August 5th 10.15 at Margaret's home. Ring 211775 for more information - you will be very welcome.

Jigsaw Library – your help is needed

I now have a good number of jigsaws for people to borrow but not many customers. Life has been very busy in the last few months and I haven't had time to publicise the library enough so I could really do with some help. If you are good at making posters I'd love to hear from you and if you have ideas of where to advertise the library that would be even better. In the meantime thank you to all who have passed on jigsaws to me but I really do have enough for the moment – so please NO MORE JIGSAWS FOR THE TIME BEING.

Thank you
Margaret

Peter and Maureen Robinson

Peter and Maureen Robinson have been stalwarts of St Stephen's Church, Treleigh since the 1960's when they moved to Cornwall for career reasons. It was here that they raised their children Stephen and Judith.

Music has been an important part of Peter's life. He sang in choirs, worked with Treleigh School and organised St Stephen's Christmas Carol service for many years.

Peter and Maureen's holidays were taken overseas and nearer to home. Walking holidays were enjoyed, walking across Offa's Dyke, The Cotswold Way, coast to coast across Yorkshire and others, too many to mention. As a consequence, Peter produced numerous magnificent audio visual shows based on their holidays. Music played a vital and uplifting background to these presentations. The shows were enjoyed by many groups across Cornwall which raised money for a multitude of local charities.

Peter's service to St Stephen's Church was steadfast. He was a PCC member and Vice Chair, sang in the Church choir, an ardent fund raiser, welcomed visitors and supported all of the Church's events. Peter was responsible for the installation of the sound and loop system within the Church. His experience in this field proving invaluable. Peter never failed to be welcoming, kind and interested in everything. His quiet presence is missed so much.

Everyone wishes Maureen well as she moves to be nearer Judith.

Rest in peace Peter

OUR PLATINUM JUBILEE CELEBRATION
by Sheila Gannaway

The Flypast of the Paper Planes!
Was something to behold.
We all enjoyed, the chaos
From the youngest, to the old

Our Queen has Reigned, for 70 years!
Through good times, and through bad.
We've shared, with her, the memories,
Some happy, and some sad.

So 'Picnic in the Park,' was planned!
It rained! So went inside,
Would people come, to Celebrate?
They did, with Royal Pride.

The children, all in Fancy Dress!
With Crowns, that they had made,
Were 'snaking, through the tables,
In their, Platinum Parade.

The music played, the Singers sang!
An afternoon of Joy,
As Keepsake Medals given out,
To every girl and boy.

Then Keepsake Mugs, for mums and dads!
The Palace, had to Bless,
So Cornish Wording, could be used,
