Leading Your Church into Growth (LYCiG)

At this season of the year we typically do more remembering than usual – first at All Souls, and then at Remembrance Sunday. Of course remembering is a right and proper thing to do – it's at the centre of our worship at the altar too, after all.

But I was keen in this short piece to say something about the conference Graham and I attended recently. It was called Leading Your Church into Growth and most of those attending came from traditional sorts of churches. Not surprisingly the conference was for people keen to see their churches grow. In Redruth, we are very blessed by some good things happening in our churches, and some new people joining us, but I'd love to see much more of this, which is why Graham and I were there.

It was good to be reminded that growth is a natural thing! Healthy things grow, and healthy churches are no exception. Jesus tells loads of parables about growing things: mustard seeds, sowers, fig trees, vineyards, and while it's God who gives the growth, we the gardeners can have a big impact too. Growth is about growing spiritually deeper too of course. But it is definitely about numbers of people as well.

One of the things that struck me was the 4 Ps for church growth. First of all Prayer, which underpins all that we do. Second is Presence – in our benefice we're quite good at Presence events - typically community-type events which anyone would be happy to be at (like tea and chat, or a quiz, or a toddler group, or Open Café etc). The third P is for Proclamation which is being bit bolder about WHY we're here – that God is interested in us, and pointing out that church is for everyone, and would you like to come along? And the final P is for Persuasion – giving newcomers the chance to ask questions as part of a faith discovery journey.

I'd love it if all of us could be involved in this initiative somehow, especially in prayer, but also in various practical ways. Our intention is to offer a short series of meetings early in 2020 for all church members interested to find out how this might work. Please do join in when the time comes, and pray in the meantime!

A prayer for growth: God of Mission, who alone brings growth to your church;
send your Holy Spirit to give vision to our planning, wisdom to our actions, and power to our witness.
Help our churches to grow in numbers,
in spiritual commitment to you,
and in service to our local community;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Revd Graham talks toMary Anson

I met Mary Anson for an interview at Crossroads Care Home before the training session for the new defibrillators which are set up at St Euny and at St Andrew's Redruth...

Mary explains to me the ethos of Crossroads as she shows me around the home. I had previously seen the railway themed designs at the front of the house, complete with brown GWR ticket office signs, but a tour around the rest of the house reveals that this goes much deeper than decoration. "It's not Flambards, mind you" Mary tells me, and I half expect that to be a warning to lower my expectations as to what to find. How wrong that would be though, because as we go through the ticket office doors I enter a village which reminds me of the times past in so much detail. And that is the point of the efforts to which Mary and her team have gone to bring the Crossroads to life. We walk through a "church" area complete with Bible, pews and stained glass window, into an old fashioned "pub" which includes a dart board and old style bar, on into an area which looks like it could be the open-air of a village square, complete with lighting for daytime and evening. There's an old style shop, a barber with a lit-up red and white pole outside (and where the residents actually come for their haircuts). By the time we reach the old style TV lounge showing 1950s black and white films I am struck by the level of detail and just how different it feels to be here than the many other care homes I have visited. There is much more detail throughout the house than I can capture here, from the street names on the corridors of the residents' rooms to the brickwork designs on the walls. I want to know what the effect is, though I'm already convinced that this is no gimmick.

Mary tells me that giving the residents experiences from their childhood, brings out memories and it helps them to settle much more quickly. And Mary knows what she is talking about: many years of nursing with the NHS followed by decades' long and hard-won experience of running care homes including Tremethick and Harbour House. Mary has found herself specializing in dementia care, and is clearly passionate about doing it well; it is, as she says, a sadly growing reality. As our society lives longer, our care needs will change. But for Mary it is worth it. The real joys of this kind of care work for Mary are seeing the difference that it can make, not only to the residents themselves, but also, significantly, their families too.

ST ANDREW REDRUTH

Thank you to those who attended the two CPR training courses at Crossroads Care Home led by Mary Anson. The new defibrillator will be installed in its cabinet shortly and dedicated (see weekly sheet for the date). This will increase the network of these machines across Redruth and when called upon, be available to save a life.

Bernard, Nigel and I were honoured to be invited to serve at a special service in the Cathedral on 12 October led by Bishop Philip to celebrate the reader ministry. It was a very joyous occasion starting with a grand procession led by us around the outside of the Cathedral; a couple of pictures are included later in the magazine courtesy of Dean Roger Bush and Lois who acted as sides persons on the day. The stirring sermon was given by our own reader Jim Seth who has been involved in the training of new readers for a number of years.

We now look forward to the festive season and Christmas starting with St Andrew's Craft Fayre in the crypt on 30 November. The other date to note is 8 December for our Christmas lunch at Tehidy Park Golf Club for which we are joining with our friends at St Euny. (see details in church)

In the meantime we continue to be busy with other things. The new Garden Club meets for an hour every first Monday of the month to extend the work begun last year to create wildlife friendly features in the grounds surrounding the church. Tamsin has organised another clothes swap soiree on 16 November and on a more serious note Graham has organised an event on 21 November called Grave Talk aimed at taking the fear, mystery and apprehension out of issues concerning death and funerals which are an inevitability we must all face.#

Details of all these events and the Remembrance service and concert on 10 November are all included in this month's diary.

Finally many congratulations to Joan and David Doble and Ashton Sandry who were confirmed in the Cathedral on 19 October and joined us for their First Communion on the following Sunday followed by cake and fizz. Welcome to God's table.

ST EUNY

HARVEST FESTIVAL 6 OCTOBER 2019

Thanks must go to Lucie for her wonderful display in front of the altar after her busy week doing 'Experience Harvest' at Treleigh with the children from Treleigh School. Also to Ian at Denzil Trevithick Bakers in the town for the most amazing wheatsheaf loaf and to all those who so kindly donated non-perishable food items for CPR Foodbank. To Kathy and Margaret HJ for the floral decorations and to our CPR Co-ordinator, Jenny Worrall for ensuring the food gets to the distribution centre.

Jenny reported back that CPR Foodbank were delighted with the amount of food donated. She also wishes it to be known that they now take any unwanted furniture and have been able to help out families who would otherwise have had nothing. So, if you have any furniture no longer needed, it would be greatly appreciated.

PUBLIC ACCESS DEFIBRILLATOR

More thanks! Thanks to church and community members and local businesses for their help in raising funds for the above which was installed by Hendry Electricians on 9 and 10 October, after it was established that trench work would be required to install the electric supply to the East End of church, the current electricity supply to the lych gate not being substantial enough. Subsequently, additional funding was required for this work and for that we are indebted to Cornwall Council through their Divisional Member for Redruth South, Cllr Ian Thomas and the Community Chest Scheme. All in all, it has taken less than a year to get the funds for this defibrillator up and running.

MESSY CHURCH

Elsewhere in this magazine is an advert for Messy Church team members and anyone who would like to come along to learn more about running this kind of activity. It will take place in St Euny Church from 10am-2pm on Saturday, 16 November. Soup will be provided, along with tea and coffee, but you are advised to bring something along to eat if you would like to. Further details: Mary Judkins, South West Co-ordinator for Messy Church on: 07807 090898; E:maryjudkins@messychurch.org.uk were very busy on the morning of Saturday, 5 October, firstly playing in Redruth Buttermarket for the Fun Palaces venture, followed by playing and running a workshop for children at Redruth Library. Apparently, they have picked up another couple of adult learners from these gigs who now wish to become involved with St Euny Ukes. Great work!

CLARE INGLEHEART CONCERT

For the second year running we were pleased to host the above on Saturday evening, 12 October, where the Ingleheart Singers were joined by a choir from Devon – Sandford Sings. They sang to a packed church and the money they raised will go to two charities – the global charity based in Cornwall, Shelterbox and Troon School where they rehearse each week. It was a wonderful concert and we look forward to them returning.

NEWS from 'Flapjack'

St. Andrew's Church Pencoys with Four Lanes United Methodist Church working, worshipping and praying together as 'One in Christ'

You are most welcome to visit the church, open daily, usually from 10 am to 5 pm

Everyone is warmly invited to join us for our PATRONAL FESTIVAL Celebration with Bishop Philip, on his first visit to St. Andrew's Pencoys, on Friday, 29th November at 7 pm when he will celebrate and preach.

Revd. Carole Holmes will also be joining us, and our celebration will be followed by drinks and a special Celebration Cake made by our own 'Master Baker', Doreen, who will celebrate her birthday the same day.

We look forward to seeing you.

Our usual first-Saturday Quiz (December) will be replaced by a Patronal Festival Quiz on Saturday, 30th November, at 7 p.m. in the Hall

Other news:

Our Harvest Supper, the LAMP First Sunday Evening Event held at the Methodist Church on 6th October, was well attended, and Lorna from 'Faith Food' in Alma Place came to tell us about her work and her vocation and mission to develop the Drop-In Centre, to feed and help those living on the edge of our local community. She has asked us to express her thanks to all who came and donated both cash and Harvest produce for their use. The next Event will be 'Remembrance' at 6pm at Christchurch on 3rd November (more details in Christchurch's news) to which everyone is most welcome.

The launch of our new Children's Clothing Bank on 21st September attracted one Mum and her daughter, then a few more of her family. With the clothes, tea, coffee, drinks and biscuits all free of charge, it apparently 'went mad' on Facebook, and we wondered what October would bring (now 19th October): our second Clothing Bank today attracted 20 adults/parents and about 10 children, a marvellous increase on last month ... who all seemed to be delighted with what they found Roll on November!

If you enjoy playing cards, why not join us on Friday, 8th November at Christchurch Hall, Laner, for a Whist Drive – this will be strictly a fun evening - so if you're a bit 'rusty' don't worry, you won't be penalised. Fr. Peter is available for help with 'brushing-up' your game if needed.

Remembrance Sunday, 10th November : Please see the central diary for the 'Flapjack' programme of events, which will start the village Post Office Memorial at 10.15 am.

As some people may know, St. Andrew's Pencoys enjoys a Prayer Partnership with the Church of St. John the Baptist in Pointe Claire, Quebec, Canada, which began over 50 years ago, when two of our congregation emigrated there after their marriage, and have remained in touch ever since. Following Bishop Philip's recent enquiry about our overseas links, we are hoping to regenerate a more pro-active connection with our Canadian Prayer Partners, by establishing a 'Canada Corner' in our church. If anyone has any material or memorabilia about/from Canada which they would like to donate or lend us, with an acknowledgment, we shall be very pleased to know about it. Thank you.

CHRISTCHURCH LANNER

Film Club

October's film was Red Joan starring Judi Dench and is based on a novel written by Jennie Rooney. The film tells the story of a young Cambridge student who becomes involved with Communists and supplies the Soviet Union with nuclear secrets. The film hit home that big issues cannot be reduced to a simple 'right or wrong'. It also evokes an age when major political principles meant a great deal to so many.

October's film will be The Imitation Game starring Benedict Cumberbatch and Keira Knightley. In 1939, newly created British intelligence agency MI6 recruits Cambridge mathematics graduate Alan Turing to crack Nazi codes, including Enigma, which cryptanalysts had thought unbreakable. Turing's team analyse Enigma messages while he builds a machine to decipher them. Turing and team finally succeed and become heroes, but in 1952, the quiet genius encounters disgrace when authorities reveal he is gay and send him to prison.

Film Club nights are always the last Friday of each month and is part of the CFylm scheme. Doors open at 6:30pm and the film starts at 7pm. Our next film night will be on Friday, 29th November.

Harvest

The Harvest Supper and "Scarecrow" Beetle Drive took place on Saturday 12th October. We all had great fun, even though some of us hardly got a start in drawing our Scarecrows before someone called out that they had finished! We expect to hold another Beetledrive in the Spring, but in the meantime, everyone is invited to play whist at the next LAMP event on Friday, November 8th, 7pm, in the church hall.

First Sunday

Sunday, 3rd November at 6pm is a service of remembering; if you would like a photo of a loved one to be projected, please email your photo to jknightbennett@gmail.com or give to Fr Peter Fellows.

Patronal Festival

Mary Anson is once again kindly hosting our Patronal Supper at her home. The evening begins at 7pm on Friday, 22nd November. At £10 per person, you are guaranteed delicious food and drink, not forgetting the scintillating conversation!

The supper is followed by the festival of Christ the King on Sunday, 24th November. There will be a celebratory Holy Communion at 3pm, led by the Cornwall County Youth Choir with Paul Barker's RoQuiem setting and other items from their current repertoire. This will be followed by refreshments in the church and hall. The guest Celebrant & Preacher is The Dean of Truro Cathedral, The Very Reverend Roger Bush, the former Rector of Redruth before Fr Simon Cade.

The Cornwall County Youth Choir is a relatively new Choir managed and organised by the Cornwall Music Education Hub (CMEH), directed by Angela Renshaw, with Julia Knight-Bennett and Matt Douglas as Assistant Director and choir voice mentors Andy Farris, Cheryl Rosevear and Kirsty Bailey. Although the choir was only recently established in April 2016 the choir have performed at the Birmingham Symphony Hall, Royal Albert Hall, Truro Cathedral, and Hall for Cornwall. They have worked with members of the BBC Singers and also performed as a guest choir with Brit Award winners 'Blake'.

ST STEPHEN TRELEIGH

The Harvest service on Sunday was taken by Rev. Caspar Bush assisted by Eucharist Minister, Len Cunningham, with readings by Keith Naylor. The church was beautifully decorated with flower arrangements in every window, complimented by a considerable amount of non-perishable goods which will be delivered to FOODBANK, and with fruit baskets that will be delivered to members of the community.

Treleigh Church Annual Harvest Supper on October 7th was the usual hilarious evening with Fr Peter Fellows as our very able auctioneer. The evening started with a pasty supper and ended with a general knowledge quiz and raffle. Thanks go to our brilliant auctioneer, to Carol for organising the most delicious pasties, to Len for the quiz, to Mary and Debbie for the raffle and to all who generously supported it. The evening raised £136 for Church Funds with non-perishable goods being taken to Foodbank.

Please note....The Remembrance Sunday service on November 10th will start at 10.55am to allow for the 2 minutes silence at 11am.

Treleigh Christmas celebrations begin on December 7th with our Christmas Fayre and Coffee Morning from 10-12noon in Treleigh Community Hall to include Christmas baking and presents, books, greetings cards and goodies for sale plus a raffle. Proceeds will go to Church funds with a donation to Cornwall Air Ambulance. Well worth popping in to chat to old friends and make new ones. On December 22nd Treleigh Carol Service is at 6pm with Treleigh School Choir followed by mince pies and coffee in Treleigh Community Hall and the drawing of the Christmas Raffle. On December 24th there will be a Crib Service in Church at 3pm and Midnight Mass at 11.30pm. On December 26th there will be Holy Communion at 10.30am, being St. Stephen's Patronal Festival.

As in previous years there will be a Christmas card stand at the back of the church to display cards to and from your friends in the congregation.

Experience Harvest

St. Stephen's Church, Treleigh

1st—3rd October 2019

Galatians 5 : 22-23

'But the spirit produces love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, humility, and self-control. There is no law against such things as these.'

Following last term's 'experience church', the second 'experience' took place, this time the subject was harvest.

The team reassembled, with a couple of welcome new additions, and the church was transformed. Five stations were set up representing Harvest of the garden, ocean, flock, grain and the earth.

The children were introduced to these concepts by interacting at the various stations, learning about Patience; through the planting of seeds, Peace; through the story of Jesus calming the sea, Humility; by learning that a garment is woven through the skills of many, who cannot work alone, Generosity; by the sharing of bread and the Joy of giving, by making a pot to give away.

The final experience was 'thanksgiving', where the children learned about the Jewish celebration of Sukkot. They hung fruits, bearing the words from each station in the Sukkah, which was assembled as the Jewish people do during Sukkot, to remember Moses leading his people through the desert to the promised land, which in turn reminds them of God's faithfulness.

All in all, it was a very positive time and I would like to thank all the volunteers who generously gave of their time and talents.

The wonderful harvest loaf was handcrafted and donated by Ian 'Denzil' Trevethick from Fore Street Redruth. The veg was given by Liz and Geoffrey from St Euny Churchtown and a corn sheaf was sourced by Charmaine. Margaret Davis donated a sheet which became our troubled sea, and Anthony gave the apples. A big thanks to all who donated. The harvest loaf and veg were used to form the display at the altar for the Harvest Festival service at St Euny Church on the 6th October.

During my time arranging this event I can truly say that I myself have witnessed these 'fruits of the spirit' in action and it has been a great learning time for me.
