Remembrance – an extra special year

Since the big centenary commemorations of 2014 marking a century from the beginning of WW1, it's been clear that 2018 would be an extra important Remembrance event as we remember its end.

A whole century is enough to start making events feel like unrelatable history rather than anything to do with our own experience. But it's so important that we don't forget the horrors of war and the sacrifice made by so many, and so we go on trying to find ways of keeping these memories real and present.

- They shall not grow old, is by Lord of the Rings director Peter Jackson. It takes old black and white film footage of soldiers in WW1 and uses computer colorizing film technology and lip-reading to bring colour and sound that give the feel of how it really looked. It looks extraordinarily effective, and it's to be shown on BBC1 on 11th November.
- I hope you had a chance to see FP's production of Home Fires by DS Beanies during half term on exactly this subject.
- In most of our churches we have silhouettes of soldiers as part of the There, but not there... national installation of WW1 Remembrance.
- And in St Andrew's Redruth we're holding a fascinating exhibition of local history featuring the lives of Redruth people who fought in WW1.

Of course we have all our usual Remembrance Sunday services. But at 7pm on Saturday 10th November we have a very special one-off event at St Andrew's. This idea came to me a year ago when I was watching a concert of one of our best local choirs Celtic Male Ensemble. It's a choir of men from age 20 to 45. And watching them I realised this was exactly the age range of most of the men who fought in WW1. Their director Alastair Taylor jumped at the chance to be involved, and likewise other performers, and the Town Council are backing it too (see advert elsewhere in this magazine). It promises to be a very memorable evening, with all proceeds to the RBL Poppy Appeal. It's such an important thing that the Church provides a welcome and facilitates high profile events such as these, and it would be lovely to have plenty of church members at this event too, to remember those who gave their lives, and to hold all these events and memories in prayer before our ever-loving God.

With my prayers, and very best wishes

Fast or Feast

You will all no doubt be aware of our new initiative – A Feast of Prayer. I am writing to encourage you to participate and explain a little more about how everyone can get involved.

Prayer is part and parcel of our spiritual lives, even so we all find prayer difficult at times. Over the years I have found it easier and more rewarding to pray with other people and that has happened in a number of ways. Sometimes praying with one or two when there has been a specific need and at other times being part of a prayer group, praying for healing for those who are ill, in pain and often fearful.

Our leaflet, A Feast of Prayer, offers a menu of different ways in which everyone can participate in a way that suits the individual, on a regular basis or when there is a special opportunity such as a prayer walk or the moveable feast. All this can seem a bit daunting if you have not experienced it before, or if you are worried about committing yourself to something you are not sure about. Prayer triplets or prayer groups will decide where they meet and how often; this can be weekly or monthly with participants continuing to pray in their own time at home. How the prayer time will be used, again is up to the individual triplet or prayer group; this can be done beginning with a prayer from the Starter Menu or one of your own prayers, followed by silent prayer or spoken prayer without any pressure to speak yourself and closing the session with the Lord's Prayer and/or the Grace. You may like to concentrate on a particular theme in a group which of course can change after time or needs dictate and if you decide the triplet or prayer group is not for you or you want to try something else that is OK too. Nothing is set in stone, just give it a try!

One important aspect of praying together is sharing how you understand the prayer[s] have been answered and what difference the prayer has made to you as well as those you are praying for. It will also be good to share those responses, where appropriate, with the other churches in the Benefice.

You may feel being part of a group, however small, will be difficult for you because of mobility or transport but you could always offer to host a group. Praying together is a wonderful opportunity to make new friends or strengthen existing relationships, especially across the Benefice, as well as growing our own spiritual life of prayer and seeking God's will for our churches and communities.

Please do pray about how you could be involved in the Feast of Prayer, fill in the form and return it to any of the clergy team. If you need any more information or help with prayers or topics for a prayer triplet or prayer group let the clergy team [including our readers] know. We will be delighted to encourage your participation.

ST EUNY

For those who don't know, our 3rd Sunday Morning Praise service has moved to the 4th Sunday of the month. Same time 11.15am. All welcome.

A Plethora of Thanks

Our dear friends from Carn Brea Village Church who have joined us for worship due to the closure of their church, very kindly offered us at St Euny Church, first refusal on their goods and chattels. We wish to thank them for chairs and various other items including a picture by Jenny Worrall which takes pride of place above the sofas in the communal area. Speaking of sofas, we were delighted to take receipt of our second sofa for that area, courtesy of Jenny and Peter Sincok, for which we are extremely grateful. Thank you both.

Thanks go to Redruth Charity Trust for granting us a cheque to the value of £100 for flower arranging material which was presented to Churchwardens, Lucie and Margaret on Wednesday evening, 10th October at St Rumons. Many charities benefited from the generosity of this community-spirited organisation and in total our Redruth churches came away with £600. A heartfelt thank you to RCT.

And last but not least, thanks to Kathy and Margaret HJ for turning out beautiful floral arrangements. The Harvest flowers were spectacular.

Open Cafe continues to flourish and Clare has organised an 8 week ukulele course run by Nikki which is proving very popular. On Thursday 11 October they raised £104 by purchasing a cream tea from Jenny and Peter Sincok who are helping to raise funds for their grandson Matt to travel to South Africa next year. Matt has been selected to play for the Cornwall u12s at cricket which is a fantastic accolade. Jenny was hovering over a hot oven baking scones, 40 of which were delivered by Jenny and Peter to Open Cafe where Peter brought a photo of Matt to show the group to whom they were donating and gave them an explanation regarding the tour next year.

Thanks to Luci Isaacson, the Diocese Environment Officer, we have taken receipt of several items to help make our church a 'greener' place – a water butt; compost bin; bee and bug box and wildflower seeds. Clive and Bryan (bellringers) are putting up the box in the churchyard and Robin (a local neighbour in the community) will be dealing with the water butt and compost bin. Whether that makes them Environmental Champions I'm not sure, but they're certainly our champions at St Euny!

On Sunday, 7 October, Bob and Beverley Matthews had a private service at St Euny to celebrate 50 years of wedded bliss. Fr Peter took the service and in his inimitable fashion included amongst other things, a quiz! Bob and Bev's association with St Euny goes back many years, Bob having served as Churchwarden in his time and Bev's father and offspring being members of the church choir. Bev who takes after her mother Vi, is very talented and among other items made the St Euny clergy chasuble, whilst Vi made the Lady Chapel altar frontal which can be seen in the photo. This was a lovely occasion for them, surrounded by family and friends. Love and congratulations to both

ST STEPHEN TRELEIGH

It is with great sadness that I have to report the passing of two of the great and long time stalwarts of Treleigh Church, Kitty Pearse whose funeral was on September 12th and Gordon Youlton whose funeral was on October 1st. Kit was born in India where her father was serving in the RAF. After various postings in the UK they ended up at Cranwell from where they were evacuated to Rugely in Staffordshire for the war years. After the war the family returned to Cornwall where Kit met and married George who had been a Lancaster pilot in WW2 and two years later their daughter Alison was born. Later Kit and George moved into Redruth and ran a general groceries shop in Higher Fore Street. Kit was a member of the Redruth Players Club, the RNLI & U3A. She also played bridge and canasta. Kit had two grandchildren and a very new great grandson. Gordon, born in 1920, son of Joe and Cora Youlton, was a carpenter and served in the RAF. Gordon served most of his time at RAF Portreath, with various other postings including St. Mary's, Isles of Scilly. He was married to Jean, daughter of Alfred and Dora Hampton of Globe Farm, Radnor in 1942 in Treleigh Church, by Rev. Hawthorn, and they were in church to celebrate their 75th Wedding Anniversary in May 2017. Gordon set up a milk round from his farm in Carharrack which he ran for many years. Gordon had five children, ten grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. Kit and Gordon were long time members of our congregation and great friends to us all, being so much part of life at Treleigh for so many years and we are all the richer for knowing them. Our thoughts and prayers are with their families.

Fifteen members of Treleigh Ladies Group had a very enjoyable outing to Fowey on September 11th, stopping for lunch at The Galleon Inn followed by a walk around the town.

Caspar's "not too serious" quiz was a great success on September 22nd with him and son, Hugo, bombarding us with a wide variety of thought provoking questions. It was a fun evening raising funds for the Treleigh Hall Improvements Fund. Our thanks to Caspar and Hugo for all the hard work that went into putting this together and for a very entertaining evening. A vote of thanks was proposed by Len Cunningham.

On November 3rd at 7pm there will be a concert in Treleigh Church by The Skyliners Big Band an evening with the big band sound, with tea & biscuits to follow. Admission £3, under 16's free. Church pews can be a little hard so for added comfort you may like to bring your own cushion! Proceeds to Treleigh Hall Improvements Fund.

There will be a swinging 60's Christmas Party with Jesse Clift at Treleigh Hall on November 10th at 7pm. Admission will be £5 to include light refreshments. Proceeds will go to Treleigh Community Hall Improvements Fund.

Please note....The Remembrance Sunday service on November 11th will start at 10.55am to allow for the 2 minutes silence at 11am.

The Treleigh Christmas Sale and Coffee morning will be held on Saturday December 1st from 10am to 12 noon. Christmas baking & presents, craft stall, greetings cards, books, raffle and goodies for sale. Proceeds to Church Funds with a donation to "Keep It In Cornwall For Kids". In the evening there will be a concert of Cornish Carols by St. Ives Fore Street Choir in Treleigh Church at 7pm with tea and biscuits to follow. Admission by donation. Proceeds to Treleigh Hall Improvements Fund.

The Harvest service on October 7th was taken by Revd Jo Mulliner assisted by Eucharist Minister Len Cunningham with readings by Trish Knights.

The Harvest Supper on October 8th was a hilarious evening with Revd Peter Fellows as auctioneer, assisted by Revd Caspar Bush, Len Cunningham being the 'runner'. The evening included a pasty supper and ended with a quiz. Thanks to all who made it such a success. Proceeds to be split between Church funds & Water Aid.

St Andrew's, Redruth Remembers

Our churches may not have the same meaning for each of us, but we are surely privileged to meet in a building that has been loved and shared by previous generations and which has offered so many the comfort of sacred space. This month we are focusing, with much of the world, on the centenary of the end of World War I. The conflict that touched the lives of so many men, women and children across Europe and beyond, and that scarred the landscape where its devastating battles took place, has left its traces on our own church.

This month we will remember those who lost their lives and the families and friends who suffered and endured from all nations, but we will mark especially those from our home town and our Parish churches. Whether we were born here, or have chosen to live here, Redruth and its people, present and past, are our extended family and in November we are commemorating, and celebrating, their courage and resilience.

Some of these acts of commemoration will be collective, as we come together for services and events. On Saturday 10 November at 7 pm there will be a Festival of Remembrance Concert, with music, poetry, and an act of worship, in aid of the British Legion. Please see Caspar for tickets.

On Sunday 11 November there will be an informal Remembrance communion at 9.30am. Then we shall be joining with other local churches, civic representatives, and community organisations for the traditional Redruth Remembrance Day event. The official procession will start from Sea View Terrace at 10.40 am to arrive in Victoria Park for the start of the formal Act of Remembrance and laying of wreaths from 10.50 am. Everyone is then invited to follow the procession down to St Andrew's for the Remembrance Service, which will start at about 11.15 am. You are, of course, welcome to come to the church service without attending the Victoria Park ceremony.

We are also honouring the centenary quietly. Anyone who has attended a service or event at St Andrew's in the past few weeks will have noticed some still, silent figures in the pews. These are 'Tommies' from the nationwide 'There But Not There' installation that commemorates the fallen of World War I. These, transparent, figures stand for all those who suffered and died in the conflict and are part of a campaign by the charity 'Remembered' to 'commemorate, educate, and heal'.

St Andrew's, with Redruth Old Cornwall Society, are also mounting an exhibition of artefacts, documents, and research to tell the stories of the fallen of Redruth and the wartime experiences of those on the front and at home. The exhibition team, led by Linda Beskeen and Marion Walker, is busy preparing what we hope will be a moving testament to the courage and resilience of our forebears, including those whose memorials are in St Andrew's. The exhibition will open on 7 November for two weeks and opening times will be posted in the weekly news sheet.

ST ANDREW PENCOYS

St. Andrew's Church Pencoyls with Four Lanes United Methodist Church

'FLAPJACK'

Worshipping, praying and working together as One in Christ

We invite you to our joint events and services and to visit St. Andrew's Church, open daily from 10 am to 5 pm

At the Village Harvest Festival on 7 October, when one very enthusiastic member of Lighthouse took a large part in the service, we were treated to a lively interchange of ideas on the meaning of Harvest. One member's attempt at fancy dress ('persuaded' by Fr. Peter) as a King Edward potato, sporting King Herod's (Caspar's) crown from last year's Nativity tableau and a khaki shirt (I leave readers to guess the identity of the idiot in question!), added a bit of fun to the service, during which the youngest member accomplished some colourful illustrations, assisted by Caroline, which were enjoyed and talked about the following Sunday, at our Flapjack Family Event. We thank everyone for their very generous contributions of harvest and practical gifts for St. Petroc's Society.

Later in the evening on the 7th, we were delighted to welcome almost 30 people to the LAMP First Sunday Evening Event, our Harvest Supper Service, held for the first time at the Methodist Church. The delicious savouries and sumptuous desserts were thoroughly enjoyed by all who came, and we thank everyone who donated the food or helped in any way, especially Jenny and Caroline. After the meal, Margaret explained that the new third-world commercial commodity is fresh water, and spoke about the tireless efforts of Water Aid, working to criminalise and eradicate the evil activities of unscrupulous businesses who buy up land with fresh water supplies and hold people's lives to ransom by damming and diverting the springs and fresh water to prevent their natural flow to poorer areas, then selling their bottled water to the poor at exorbitant prices! A retiring collection to support this vitally important work raised £110, and our thanks go to everyone who came to this event. The next First Sunday Evening Event will be held at 6 p.m. on 4th November at Christchurch Lanner, when the theme will be 'Remembrance'. Full details about how to participate and remember loved ones are in the weekly sheet, and everyone is very welcome.

Remembrance Sunday, 11th November – something new for Four Lanes: To commemorate the Centenary of the Armistice ending the First World War, the people of Four Lanes and Pencoyls have agreed to donate a Memorial Plaque of Thanks in memory of those residents who gave their lives for the freedom of others, in the armed forces and in many other ways. The plaque will be mounted on the new extension wall of the Post Office (by kind permission of the owner, Cllr. Robert Hendry) in the centre of the village, and unveiled on Remembrance Sunday, prior to the usual Act of Remembrance at the Church lych gate. Everyone is invited to the day's events, which will run as follows: 10.45am: meet in the Methodist Church car park. Unveiling of the plaque by Barrie Baker (related to one of the Fallen on the lych gate Memorial); short Act of Remembrance, laying of one wreath, then procession to St. Andrew's Pencoyls lych gate; 11.20am Act of Remembrance, laying of three wreaths and one on a war grave in the churchyard. 11.30am Holy Communion with Hymns, in church. 1pm Lunch at the Methodist Church, with WW1 menu, then a singalong of Wartime songs, to which everyone is invited. Please do join us if you can.

Stroke Befriending Service

Have you had a stroke and would like to speak to someone who understands? Volunteer Cornwall's Stroke Befriending Service could be just the thing you're looking for.

One of our friendly Stroke Befriending volunteers can meet with you on a regular basis and offer support and encouragement. We have found this can really help to build confidence and make people feel less isolated and more connected to their community.

This is a completely free service and volunteers can visit people at home, in hospital or in a care home. Stroke Befriending is also available via telephone, email and video call.

Or if you have had a stroke and would like to help someone else in their recovery journey, why not get in touch and find out more about becoming a Stroke Befriending volunteer?

Contact Volunteer Cornwall to make a referral or find out more:

FRIDAY 2 NOVEMBER - BOOK CLUB 12 Mount Carbis Gardens

A fascinating and entertaining account of a trek along Spain's ancient pilgrim trail - the five hundred mile long Camino de Santiago. Replete with interesting snippets and anecdotes about the rich ethnic, cultural, military and religious history of Spain, Strangers on The Camino is no ordinary travelogue - but a very readable book that gives the reader a meticulous insight and perspective of a challenging journey by a father and son along the Camino. Strangers on the Camino will be of interest and of use to those who are thinking of setting off on their own Camino. The detailed descriptions of The Way - and of the refugios and other accommodation which Sanjiva and his son Shivantha used - give a real sense of what it is like to make a six week journey by foot over a five hundred mile trail that traverses the mountains, mesetas and mists of Spain.

Advance notice for December: St. Andrew's Pencoys Christmas Tree Exhibition

We shall again be staging an exhibition of Christmas trees in St. Andrew's Pencoys, on Friday and Saturday, 7 and 8 December, during the church's regular opening times. It will run until Saturday, 5 January 2019. If you have exhibited before, and would like to do so again, there is no need to let me know, and the same arrangements as previously (window sites, etc.) will apply. If you would like to join us for the first time, please let me know by Advent Sunday, 2 December, so that I can prepare a name card and a site for your tree. If you have exhibited in the past but are no longer able, or wish, to do so, please let me know by the above date. Many thanks.

Did you see the Marriage of Princess Eugenie of York to Mr. James Brooksbank on Friday, 12th October? The Cornish connection ...

As my great great Aunt Alice had served as a chambermaid at Marlborough House and then Buckingham Palace for Prince Edward and Princess Alexandra of Denmark (later King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra) in the late 1800s and early 1900s, and my Grandmother as a linen-room maid at Buckingham Palace during the First World War reign of King George V and Queen Mary, our family was totally brainwashed with royalty from a very early age! As a result I have become a regular royal watcher, if only to honour the memory of my 'loyal-to-royalty' Grandmother, whom I adored, and whose Christian faith was an inspiration to us all. So, armed with a pile of vegetables, a sharp knife, chopping board and giant saucepans, to prepare soup for our Jumblefood the following day (I can never watch TV without doing something useful: emailing, sewing, knitting, preparing food), I settled down to watch the royal nuptials with an almost-clear conscience! I wasn't disappointed. Despite the secular TV commentary, which seemed to concentrate only on celebrities, fashion and outward appearances, with little or no reference to the Order of Service, my mind focussed on the spirituality of the event, which was clearly reflected in the couple themselves. Having sung in church choirs since the age of 13, my particular interest was in its musical and prayer content. The familiar strains of 'Glorious things of thee are spoken', 'Immortal, invisible, God only wise' and 'Love divine, all loves excelling' confirmed the tradition of the occasion, celebrated using the rite of the 1928 Book of Common Prayer; but hardly a mention was made of the ecclesiastical 'royalty' present, the Most Revd., Rt. Hon. John Sentamu, Archbishop of York, who led the prayers and said the Blessing. How many recognised the link between his Archdiocese and the family name of the bride, the granddaughter of another, former, Princess of York, H.M. the Queen (who's also the Duke of Lancaster - ouch!)? (I'm a bit precious about 'Yorkiness'! My father was from Yorkshire, as are my cousins, and the name of my late mother's twin brother, in the RAF and killed in 1944 aged 20, is recorded in the Book of Remembrance in York Minster.)

It was aptly familial that the couple were married by Eugenie's 'local vicar', the Dean of Windsor, Rt. Revd. David Cotter, whom she has known since she was eight years old, and therefore a family friend. In all, I found it a very moving experience.

However, for me the icing on the cake (if you'll pardon the topical pun) had to be the inclusion of John Rutter's hauntingly beautiful "Gaelic Blessing", then Duruflé's "Ubi Caritas", during the signing of the Registers, following the Bach/Gounod "Ave Maria" and César Franck's touching "Panis Angelicus", sung by Andrea Bocelli, all of which have featured regularly in the musical repertoire of our diocesan Mother Church of St. Mary. I pondered their familiarity, and then realised: the Organist at St. George's Chapel, Windsor, who also played for the previous royal wedding in May, is none other than Luke Bond, the former Assistant DM/Organist at Truro Cathedral, who, with James Vivian, Director of Music, probably wafted his subtle influence over the musical proceedings! How lovely to know that the former leader of St. Mary's Singers, (with whom I sang 18 years ago) and of which my daughter Sophie was a member for some years, with Roger and Lois Bush, and knew Luke well, has achieved such success. I learned of Luke's new appointment from a member of the Cathedral congregation last year when querying his absence from the Singers at an event I was attending. His delightful playing contributed so much to this prestigious and memorable occasion and Truro's loss is certainly Windsor's gain!

Job Vacancy—Benefice Administrator Post

Due to my other part-time job becoming much busier, I have sadly had to make the decision to stop being Benefice Administrator. I will be leaving at the end of the year, but it is hoped that someone can start as soon as possible, so I have time to fully train them. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Caspar for his support regarding this and during my time in the job – I have enjoyed working with him and all the Benefice Team. You will find a brief overview of the role below, but please contact Caspar for an informal chat to find out more about the job. It's possible the finalised role may change a little from what follows, but the main areas of responsibility as Benefice Administrator have been:

- Production and printing of weekly pew sheet
- Monitoring and replying to emails received
- Collation of weddings and baptisms booked - sending details to each church
- Provision of banns details to be called to the relevant churches
- Sending out correspondence regarding wedding fees and monitoring fees received
- Production of monthly calendar details for magazine
- Drawing up the quarterly readings list

Eight hours per week – mainly working from home using a supplied laptop, with some time spent in the office to carry out printing and any other admin duties.
