GOSPEL SET FOR TODAY: Matthew 16 vv13 - 20

How do we recognise Jesus and the love that he brought into the world. Jesus asks his disciples the direct question: "who do people say that I am?" The disciples had heard the parables and seen the miracles. They had heard the comments and criticism but Peter was able to answer: "You are the Christ, the son of the living God". So, what would you say if you were asked the same question, and on what would you base your answer?

The best view of Durham Cathedral is from the prison!! In the visitors waiting room there was a poster that said: "if you were arrested for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?".

What is it that draws to church day by day, week by week. What is it that brings you to support a church where so much concerning inclusivity and diversity seems to be wrong? How would you answer the question that Jesus asked his disciples:

"who do they say that I am?"

THOSE WHO WE REMEMBER THIS WEEK

Monday August 24 Bartholomew the Apostle

Known as “the apostles” or “ones who were sent,” Bartholomew and the other disciples witnessed Jesus’ ministry for about three years. After Jesus’ death, they began the movement which became known as Christianity. This makes Bartholomew one of the most important and authoritative leaders of the early church, and he likely helped spread the gospel to particular regions during the first century—but he’s never explicitly mentioned or singled out in any of the epistles.

Thursday August 27 Monica Mother of Augustine of Hippo 387

Saint Monica was the mother of one of the greatest saints in the history of the Church: Saint Augustine. Monica was most likely born in Algeria, North Africa, and was a member of the Berber tribe. Her area was then part of the Roman Empire, which had legalized Christianity just twenty years before Monica was born. She was raised in a Christian home and became devout. Because Christianity was still new to the Roman Empire, Christians were likely a minority at that time. Monica married a man named Patricius (Patrick), who was a pagan and said to have had a violent temper and an immoral lifestyle. Patricius’ mother lived with the couple and is said to have had the same violent temperament as her son. Monica and Patricius had three children: sons Augustine and Navigius and a daughter whose name is unknown.

Friday August 28 Augustine Bishop of Hippo 430

St. Augustine of Hippo was a theologian, writer, preacher, rhetorician, and bishop. Although he experienced many hardships in his life, Saint Augustine set an example for men and women around the world to follow. His work is reflected in the lives of Catholics in the Augustinian tradition who continue to care for those in great need.

AS ST ANDREW, PENCOYS CONSIDERS THE FUTURE, SHEILA HAS WRITTEN THIS POEM:

St Andrew's Church, Pencoyd

*Our church upon the mountain,
is FP's turn of phrase,
And although we love it dearly,
it has seen better days.*

*A pasture green for grazing,
found high upon a hill;
The perfect spot was chosen,
and the church remains there still.*

*Was built and consecrated in eighteen eighty one,
So many generations since,
its life had just begun.*

*The century was celebrated,
nineteen eighty one'
The congregation still so large,
with children having fun.*

*The church has stood the test of time,
but now we have to face,
We need the help of others
to retain this holy place.*

*So now we come together,
and try to find a way
To keep our church from closing,
God's will be done we pray.*

Sheila Gannaway 27 07 2026

Andrew said to Simon:
"We have seen the Messiah, who is the Christ"
And he took him to Jesus
