THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER / Easter 3

Please take care and stay safe whilst you keep others safe, the COVID levels in Cornwall still remain HIGH!!

Dear Readers throughout the world,

The Platinum Jubilee celebrations are just around the corner, so this week there is a list of the events that have been planned to celebrate this significant in the life of both the nation and the world. So, with thanks to the internet, here is something about platinum

What is Platinum?

- Platinum with the atomic number 78 and an atomic mass of 195 in the periodic table is an extremely rare element found in the crust of the earth.
- The word Platinum is derived from Platina (Spanish word meaning 'little silver'), because of its grey-white silvery colour. With an availability of 5g/kg in the earth's crust, it is one of the rarest elements and is highly valuable for the same reason. Although it was discovered relatively later by European scientists, it has been found in Egyptian tombs dating back to 1200 BC.

Uses of Platinum

- It is also used in laboratories for electrodes.
- Optical fibres, wires, and pacemakers also make use of platinum for better efficiency.
- Certain compounds of platinum are used in chemotherapy for treating cancer.
- Some watchmakers use platinum in their watches to make it exclusive.
- Because of its stable physical and chemical properties, platinum metal is a very useful metal. Despite its rarity, its application is quite widespread.
- Because of its high stability, platinum is used extensively as a catalyst for chemical reactions.
- The most common application of this is the Catalytic Converter in cars which converts the Carbon monoxide (CO) and other residual pollutants into Carbon dioxide (CO₂) and water vapour.
- The high malleability, ductility, and inertness of the metal make it especially suitable for making jewellery. Around half of the platinum extracted every year goes into making jewellery.

So, now you know!! Have fun at all the events.

With the love and assurance of our prayers as a new chapter begins for us all

THE BIBLE PASSAGE FOR TODAY: John 10 vv22 – 30

“The Father and I are one” said Jesus as he walked round the Temple in Jerusalem on a major Jewish Festival. Jesus makes it quite clear that he is united with God the Father; Jesus is God the Son, and the third part of the Trinity will be made visible much later through the events of Pentecost and the descent of the Holy Spirit. These words of Jesus remind us of the Annunciation. The moment when the Angel Gabriel said to Mary that the child would be called Emmanuel, which means God with us. It is that assurance that Jesus and God are one that enable us to understand that no matter what happens we do not walk alone. Jesus lived our earthly life. He was a refugee, he was threatened with death as a baby, he was arrested, imprisoned and executed. Whatever we may suffer, Jesus, God with us, has walked the same pathway. He given that assurance to everyone and those who turn towards him know that they do not walk alone.

Gregory Dix was born on 4 October 1901 in Woolwich, South London.^[1] He was the son of Mary Jane Dix, a Methodist and George Henry Dix, a schoolmaster and Anglo-Catholic priest^[2] who served as the first principal of the College of St Mark and St John, Chelsea.¹ Gregory was educated at Westminster School and won a scholarship to Merton College, Oxford. He was ordained as a deacon on 5 October 1924 and as a priest on 4 October 1925.^[4] He entered the Nashdom Community the following year and was sent to the Gold Coast as a novice until his health broke down in 1929.

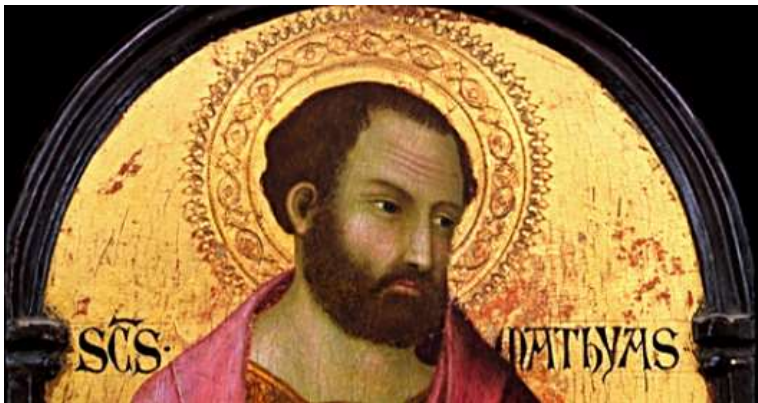

Returning to Nashdom he and his final vows only 1940. During the Second World War he lived for a while in Beaconsfield, Buckinghamshire, and looked after the Anglo-Catholic daughter church of St Michael whilst his brother Ronald, who was the priest there, served as a military chaplain. With another monk he lived in the parsonage, kept the round of monastic offices and cared for the parish. Gregory became prior of his abbey in 1948.

FRIDAY MAY 13 Feria

SATURDAY MAY 14 MATTHIAS Apostle

After Judas had gone from the disciples, now Apostles, Matthias was chosen by 'lot' to be his replacement and bring the number back to 12. This number was crucial as it provided a link to the twelve tribes of Israel. It became essential that the 'replacement' must have been alongside Jesus during his earthly ministry and to have been a witness to the resurrection. The choosing by 'lot' rather than a democratic vote, was for the Apostles a method which would enable God to make the choice.

FOLLOWERS OF CHRIST

Although written in 1995, Sheila Gannaway's poem has a particular relevance today as the Church struggles to find the best way forward. Unity with other denominations, traditions and theologies must be taken seriously if churches and chapels are going to continue to bring God's love into the lives of all.

FOLLOWERS OF CHRIST

"Step forward" all you followers
Of Jesus Christ our Lord,
Those who believe our Saviour died,
And then had life restored.

Was born a babe, to Mary,
As foretold before his birth,
Then lived a short, but fruitful life,
A man, upon this earth.

If this request were put to all,
Then surely, we would see,
How petty, are our differences,
If, on this, we agree.

God's son, was born, and died for all,
To save us from our sin!
Instead of finding fault,
From common ground, we could begin.

We should be standing, side by side,
All Christians, be, as one,
With no divisions, eyes all set
On Christ, God's risen Son.

For he will, come again, one day,
His followers to claim,
When he commands, "Step Forward"

Won't we then, all be – the same?

HOLY COMMUNION AT HOME

Perhaps you are still receiving the Blessed Sacrament at home? Perhaps you are still zooming your Sunday Service week by week. No-one must do what they are not comfortable with, so this prayer may still be of use to you. The Redruth Benefice churches remain open for private prayer and weekday services of Holy Communion and now the Benefice churches are open as usual on a Sunday (check timings for St Euny).

However you may well have taken the decision to STAY AT HOME. The following prayer will help you to receive the Sacrament at home when once you would have been in church, or even on zoom. A prayer is offered and bread is taken:

*As the seed falls into the earth and dies to give life to the grain,
As the corn is cut and crushed to make flour,
As the flour is baked and the yeast dies to give life to the dough.
As the bread is broken and eaten to give life to the body.
So Jesus, sitting with the disciples, took bread, broke it, and said:
“This is my body broken for the world”
Eat the bread and remember Jesus
May God bless you on your journey and keep you safe.*
