

MOVING FORWARD TOGETHER Newsletter Year 3 / 6 Sunday April 24 2022 THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER / Easter 1

Please take care and stay safe whilst you keep others safe, the COVID levels in Cornwall remain VERY HIGH!!

Dear Readers throughout the world,

This sheet is written so that it can be with Simon, the Benefice Administrator by TUESDAY each week. So this means that at the time of writing HOLY WEEK was still very much a reality. How was it for you. Hopefully the various events, throughout the week and especially in the TRIDIUM (Thursday, Friday and Saturday).

Christchurch has the memory of Blackjack the horse leaving a gift in the church, FLAPJACK has the beautiful sound of a violin interpreting Good Friday and a very happy memory of a parish lunch. St Euny looked really beautiful, Teleigh commended Rose to God in a much appreciated funeral and St Andrew, Redruth had a delicious Seder meal with puddings!! However the week passed, whatever memories you carried, may your faith have been deepened and your determination to reflect God's love in the world strengthened.

With the love and assurance of our prayers as a new chapter begins for us all

THE BIBLE PASSAGE FOR TODAY: John 20 vv19 – 31

The appearance to Thomas has come down through the centuries and given us the expression "doubting Thomas". But was his reaction to the news that the other disciples were shouting at him, the news that Jesus had arisen so different from our reactions from time to time. Do we not all seek proof when we are given life-changing news. This was not just news about what was going on in the Temple, or who was in trouble with the Romans. This was news about the one that Thomas and the others had walked beside for three years, who had been arrested, died on a cross and now he is told that he has risen. All Thomas wanted was proof for himself

What is your proof. Why do you go to church, say your prayers, read this sheet and put your money on the plate? Were you born a believer? Were you sent to church as a child? Have you had a 'conversion' experience? Whatever it was or is or maybe will be, your proof is your proof and will guide you on your journey. May God's blessing which surrounds you, be your guide.

THOSE WHO WE REMEMBER THIS WEEK

MONDAY APRIL 25 Mark the Evangelist

John Mark was born a Jew and thought to be the cousin of Barnabas. He accompanied Paul and Barnabas on their first missionary journey. The Gospel which carries his name is thought to be the earliest of the four Gospels and was probably written in Rome.

TUESDAY APRIL 26 George Martyr Patron of England (transferred from April 23)

George was probably a soldier, living in Palestine at the start of the 4th century. He died in Libya in about 304 under the persecution of Emperor Diocletian. The legend that he slayed a dragon is probably confused with Michael the Archangel. He replaced Edward the Confessor as patron of England in the reign of Edward III following the crusades when returning soldiers spoke of his legend.

WEDNESDAY APRIL 27 Christina Rossetti Poet 1894

Born in 1830, Christina was linked with the Pre-Raphaelite Movement of which her older brother Dante was a leader, whilst her older sister became a nun. Christina's poetry is about religion and love, often unrequited. She is most famous for writing the carol:

"In the bleak mid-winter"

THURSDAY APRIL 28 Peter Chanel Missionary in the South Pacific Martyr 1841

Born in France in 1803, Peter joined the Marist Missionary Movement in 1831. In 1836 he was sent to the South Pacific and he and his companions brought medicine and God's love. But, on the island of Futuna, near Fiji, the chief's son asked to be baptised. The chief sent a group to kill Peter who died in 1841. Within a year, the island had become Christian and Peter became revered as their first proto-martyr.

FRIDAY APRIL 29 Catherine of Siena Teacher 1380

Born in 1347, Catherine was the second of 25 children. Her vocation to the religious life was obvious from an early age, and at aged 18 she became a Dominican. As well as immersing herself in prayer, she also cared for the sick and the poor. Gradually her guidance was sort by political leaders. She was involved in bringing the Pope back to Rome from Avignon. She wrote many letters giving advice and direction.

SATURDAY APRIL 30 Pandita Mary Ramabai Translator 1922

Born in 1858 Pandita Mary was the daughter of a Sanskrit scholar who believed in the education of women. On converting to Christianity she continued to follow aspects of her Hindu birth faith. She lectured on social matters and was a critic of the caste system and child marriage.

WILL YOU BE THERE?

HOLY COMMUNION AT HOME

Perhaps you are still receiving the Blessed Sacrament at home? Perhaps you are still zooming your Sunday Service week by week. No-one must do what they are not comfortable with, so this prayer may still be of use to you. The Redruth Benefice churches remain open for private prayer and weekday services of Holy Communion and now the Benefice churches are open as usual on a Sunday (check timings for St Euny). However you may well have taken the decision to STAY AT HOME. The following prayer will help you to receive the Sacrament at home when once you would have been in church, or even on zoom. A prayer is offered and bread is taken:

*As the seed falls into the earth and dies to give life to the grain,
As the corn is cut and crushed to make flour,
As the flour is baked and the yeast dies to give life to the dough.
As the bread is broken and eaten to give life to the body.
So Jesus, sitting with the disciples, took bread, broke it, and said:
“This is my body broken for the world”
Eat the bread and remember Jesus*

May God bless you on your journey and keep you safe.
