

June 26 2022 TRINITY TWO

Is it over, the pandemic? Take care, there is still transmission, although much lower, and, people we know are struggling!!

Dear Readers throughout the world,

The Jubilee is now just a distant memory, but the resident FLAPJACK poet
Sheila Gannaway summed it all up with her latest poem:

“Our Platinum Jubilee Celebration”

The flypast of the paper planes was something to behold.

We all enjoyed the chaos, from the youngest to the old.

Our Queen has reigned for 70 years, through good times, and through bad.

We’ve shared, with her, the memories, some happy, and some sad.

So, ‘Picnic in the Park’ was planned! It rained, so went inside,

Would people come, to celebrate? They did, with Royal Pride.

The children, all in Fancy Dress, with crowns, that they had made,

Were ‘snaking’ through the tables, in their, Platinum Parade.

The music played, the singers sang, an afternoon of joy,

As keepsake medals given out, to every girl and joy.

Then keepsake mugs, for mums and dads, the palace, had to bless,

So Cornish wording, could be used ‘JUBYLE PLATYNUM AN VYTERNES’ 2022

With the love and assurance of our prayers as we celebrate this historical year!!!

THE BIBLE PASSAGE FOR TODAY TRINITY 2: Luke 9 vv51 - end

Today we welcome Deacon Christopher, Becca, Issy and Isaac to Redruth. Their days in Bristol are over, their life before Bristol will seem far away. When the Bishop’s hands went on Christopher’s head their lives changed forever.

Jesus in today’s Bible passage Jesus makes it clear that there can be no excuses; when you realise that you have a vocation to serve God in a particular way, then that is the way you must struggle to go. It may be through public ministry within a church setting, as a Reader or it may be as a chaplain in a prison, the armed forces, industry or the theatre. It may be to serve

God just where you are, as a road sweeper, in a supermarket, as a teacher, a lawyer, a train driver, a pilot, a postal worker, fire fighter.

Wherever God is calling you to be, reflect his love to all whom you meet, and know that God is beside you, willing you on to serve him and the world in that particular place. There is no hierarchy of vocation, and just because you were not surrounded by the splendour of a Cathedral and a bishop didn't put their hands on your head, that does not lessen your vocation to be who you are and where you, serving God and the world.

THOSE WHO WE REMEMBER THIS WEEK

MONDAY JUNE 27 Cyril Bishop of Alexandria Teacher 444

Cyril was first heard of when he was already a young priest. In 412 he became Patriarch, succeeding his uncle. He was a fervent supporter of the doctrine of the incarnate Christ being at once God and human. He thus supported the notion of Mary as the 'Theotokos' the 'God bearer'. The Council of Ephesus in 431 supported Cyril, thus making the twin Divinity and Humanity of Christ orthodox theology.

TUESDAY JUNE 28 Irenaeus Bishop of Lyon Teacher 200

Born in 130 in Smyrna, he heard Polycarp speak who in turn had been a disciple of John the Apostle. He studied at Rome, was ordained priest and later consecrated as Bishop of Lyons. He taught against heresy and maintained that Christ was fully human as well as fully divine. He also believed the episcopate should teach against false doctrine.

WEDNESDAY JUNE 29 Peter & Paul Apostles

Peter is often called the 'Prince of the Apostles' being renamed by Jesus from Simon to Cephas (Peter in Aramaic) and meaning 'the rock' on which the new church would be built.

Paul took the idea of this new church and gave it form and substance through his letters, preaching and teaching throughout the known world.

They are both thought to have been martyred in Rome in 64.

THURSDAY JUNE 30 Feria

FRIDAY JULY 1 Henry, John & Henry Venn the younger Priests 1797 1813 1873

Henry Venn senior was a curate in Clapham, SW London, and his son, John was born in Clapham in 1759. Later, the whole family moved to Huddersfield where Henry had been appointed Vicar. John eventually became a Rector in Norfolk, and in 1792 returned to Clapham again as Rector. John's son, Henry junior was born in Clapham in 1796. He too was ordained, but, after several livings, Henry junior devoted his time to The Church Missionary Society of which he was the secretary for 32 years.

HOLY COMMUNION AT HOME

Perhaps you are still receiving the Blessed Sacrament at home? Perhaps you are still zooming your Sunday Service week by week. No-one must do what they are not comfortable with, so this prayer may still be of use to you. The Redruth Benefice churches remain open for private prayer and weekday services of Holy Communion and now the Benefice churches are open as usual on a Sunday (check timings for St Euny).

However you may well have taken the decision to STAY AT HOME. The following prayer will help you to receive the Sacrament at home when once you would have been in church, or even on zoom. A prayer is offered and bread is taken:

*As the seed falls into the earth and dies to give life to the grain,
As the corn is cut and crushed to make flour,
As the flour is baked and the yeast dies to give life to the dough.
As the bread is broken and eaten to give life to the body.
So Jesus, sitting with the disciples, took bread, broke it, and said:
“This is my body broken for the world”
Eat the bread and remember Jesus*

May God bless you on your journey and keep you safe.
