GOSPEL FOR TRINITY 5: Luke 10 vv38 – end

The familiar story of Mary and Martha simply suggests that a life centred on God will embrace every opportunity to embrace God's love. Those opportunities may sometimes come as a complete surprise, but we must always be ready to discover God's love in the unexpected situations and the unexpected people.

THOSE WHO WE REMEMBER THIS WEEK

TUESDAY JULY 22 Mary Magdalene

All four Gospels give Mary Magdalene a special place amongst Jesus' followers. Probably from the village of Magdala on the Sea of Galilee, it is thought she was healed by Jesus before becoming a follower. She was at the cross and was the first to discover the resurrected Jesus and told by him to tell the disciples.. Hence Mary Magdalene is known as the Apostle to the Apostles.

WEDNESDAY JULY 23 Bridget of Sweden Abbess of Vadestana 1373

Born in Uppland, Sweden to a wealthy family in 1303, Bridget married at 14 and had eight children. She also had mystical experiences and when her husband died she founded an abbey for monks and nuns at Vadestana in 1346. But why, on the road to St Just is there a church dedicated to her?

FRIDAY JULY 25 James the Apostle

This is the festival of James the GREAT. It is marked in St Ives by a procession through the town to the Nils Monument overlooking the town. James together with his brother John were amongst the first disciples to be called and they were with Jesus at significant moments in his ministry.

SATURDAY JULY 26 Anne & Joachim Parents of the BVM

Today we honour the parents of Jesus. Their lives and legends emphasis the humanity of Jesus as well as his divinity
