

The 9th Sunday in the second year of the united parish LENT 4

Dear Readers,

Last weekend and next weekend the parish will be thinking about INTERGENERATIONAL WORSHIP. To link in with that theme, here are William's latest prayers, offered at the New Music Service on Sunday March 16:

As Spring makes its entrance into our everyday lives with longer evenings and daffodils on every verge, let us give thanks for new life and for those who surround us. As we pray for life at present, we also remember those who came before us, and those who will die in the future. We hope that, beside you, they are, and will live, eternal lives in your love, to one day reunite with all of us. Please lay your caring arms around all those who suffer, giving them reassurance that all will be well.

LORD IN YOUR MERCY / Hear our Prayer

Let us pray for our church community, here and around the globe. Please aid in overcoming the challenges faced by the church, as well as those of the individuals within it. We remember that in many places fellow Christians fear and face persecution on a daily basis. Please stand beside these worshippers and allow the Christian message to be heard.

LORD IN YOUR MERCY / Hear our prayer

Let us finally pray for our wider community here in Lanner and further afield. We give thanks for those people and institutions which do so much to help , improve and enrich our lives. Please support each one, allowing them to work far into the future. We also pray for our leaders and those who represent us in all aread. Please help these people to make decisions for all of us and for the world in which we live.

LORD IN YOUR MERCY / Hear our prayer

THANKYOU WILLIAM, YOUR PRAYERS ARE MUCH APPRECIATED

GOSPEL FOR THE FOURTH SUNDAY BEFORE LENT: Luke 2 vv33 – 35-

If you have children in your life, what do you hope for them? People usually say: “I want them to be happy”. Probably we all wish that, as well as maybe hoping for grand-children, or being with our children as maybe they graduate, form a loving relationship, or get satisfaction from their professional life.

Mary would have been shocked by Simeon’s prophecy concerning her son. A troublemaker, someone who would be hated, someone who would be supported by some and opposed by others.

Worse, Simeon goes on to say that the life Jesus will lead will bring his mother great pain and suffering. Mothers have the qualities of kindness, love, faithfulness and care. These qualities are common to all mothers whether they are birth mothers, adopting mothers, foster mothers, and of course grand-mothers. But those qualities should also apply to the church, which is why this Sunday is known as ‘MOTHERING SUNDAY’. This is also why, in many settings, the token of flowers is given to ALL people regardless of gender or age. SO, to everyone: HAPPY MOTHERING SUNDAY!!

THOSE WHO WE REMEMBER DURING THE WEEK

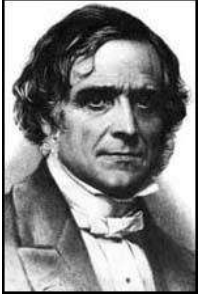

MONDAY MARCH 31 John Donne Priest Poet 1631

John was born around 1571 and brought up a Roman Catholic; he was also the grandfather of Thomas More. He struggled to find the Christian faith, but when he did accepted ordination and later was appointed as Dean of St Paul’s Cathedral. By now, his strong faith and sense of vocation was reflected through his sermons which people flocked to hear.

TUESDAY APRIL 1st Frederick Denison Maurice Priest Teacher 1872

Born into a Unitarian family in 1805, Frederick became an Anglican in his twenties and later ordained. He founded the Christian Socialist Movement with a particular care for the education of men. He spoke against hell which cost him his Professorship at King's College but was later offered a chair at Cambridge in 1866.
