

MOVING FORWARD TOGETHER Newsletter Year 6-3 Sunday April 20th
EASTER SUNDAY 2025

The 12th Sunday in the second year of the united parish Easter Day

Dear Readers,

HAPPY EASTER to all those who receive this weekly sheet both home and away

Holy Week 2025 had several new events, so THANKYOU to all who did the planning and to all who were part of the various services. Especially exciting was the involvement of groups of lay people who planned and led evening worship on the first three days of Holy Week. Thankyou also to those who cooked, built fires, fed the hungry and sang on Good Friday. All of this resulted in a very positive lead up to the great day. AND the young people's concert on Holy Saturday was TRIUMPHANT

GOSPEL FOR EASTER SUNDAY: John 20 vv1 – 18 or Luke 24 vv1 – 12

Both of these readings focus on women being at the heart of the resurrection and being the first ones to carry the news of the risen Christ out into the world. It thus seems odd that women were historically on the edge of church ministry as Bishops, Priests and Deacons. Although it is now possible for women to hold these positions in the church, we wait to see if the next Archbishop of Canterbury will be a woman. Also, churches are still allowed to refuse the ministry of women, and are cared for by Bishops with 'alternative episcopal oversight'.

For those women who discovered that the stone had rolled away the future held the responsibility to bring that news into the world. On every Easter Day, it is valuable to consider which stones need to be rolled away in your life. If Easter means anything, it means that we must seek to embrace a new pathway, free from prejudice, violence and oppression. A pathway that embraces the love, hope and joy that Jesus brought into the world and made a reality through his risen life.

THOSE WHO WE REMEMBER DURING THE WEEK

In their great wisdom, those within the Church of England who decide these things have removed all saints days, memorials and commemorations from the week after Easter. So, Saint George (23 / 4) has been moved to 28/4.....
