COMING IN MAY

Over the past few years we have, as a parish, put on an exhibition in May at St Andrew's Redruth. This year the theme for the exhibition is Childhood. From an original idea by Pat Williams (Lanner), we are planning to display toys, clothes, photos, reminiscences etc from times gone by.

We would love to incorporate all those treasured items from your past that remind you of your own childhood, so if you would be willing to lend us items, photos or clothes or you would like to do a piece of writing about a memory from childhood do please let Lez know.

We also need some people who would be willing to help organise and set up the exhibition so, again, please let Lez know if you are interested in being a part of the committee.

The exhibition will take place in St Andrew's on May 8th/9th/10th from 10am - 4pm each day. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Gospel Reading

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.' Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.
