COMING IN MAY

Over the past few years we have, as a parish, put on an exhibition in May at St Andrew's Redruth. This year the theme for the exhibition is Childhood. From an original idea by Pat Williams (Lanner), we are planning to display toys, clothes, photos, reminiscences etc from times gone by.

We would love to incorporate all those treasured items from your past that remind you of your own childhood, so if you would be willing to lend us items, photos or clothes or you would like to do a piece of writing about a memory from childhood do please let Lez know.

We also need some people who would be willing to help organise and set up the exhibition so, again, please let Lez know if you are interested in being a part of the committee.

The exhibition will take place in St Andrew's on May 8th/9th/10th from 10am - 4pm each day. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Post Communion

Almighty Father, whose Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world: may your people, illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of his glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Next week's readings - RCL page 60

Malachi 3.1-5, Psalm 24.[1-6] 7-10, Hebrews 2.14-18, Luke 2.22-40

Gospel Reading

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
because he has anointed me
to bring good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.'

And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, 'Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.'
