INTERGENERATIONAL WORSHIP

Archdeacon Kelly has offered to come and work with us to model an intergenerational service. This is a one off event that may give us food for thought for future offerings in our parish! If you would like to be part of the team on the day then there is a training session on the 22nd March. Please speak to Becca.

Please put Sunday 6th April at 3pm in your diary for the event. It would be good to have representation from across the parish and it will be wonderful!!

9TH MARCH 2025

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

WELCOME

To those who are strangers and those who are familiar, to those who are confident and those who struggle, to the young and to the not so young, God welcomes you to his house and to his table.

Collect for this Sunday

Heavenly Father, your Son battled with the powers of darkness, and grew closer to you in the desert: help us to use these days to grow in wisdom and prayer that we may witness to your saving love in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Readings for this week - RCL page 818

Deuteronomy 26.1–11, Psalm 91.1–2, 9–16, Romans 10.8b–13, Luke 4.1–13

Response to the Psalm

Be with me, O Lord, in trouble.

or

You, O Lord, are my refuge [my God in whom I put my trust].

Post Communion

Lord God, you have renewed us with the living bread from heaven; by it you nourish our faith, increase our hope, and strengthen our love: teach us always to hunger for him who is the true and living bread, and enable us to live by every word that proceeds from out of your mouth; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Next week's readings - RCL page 822

Genesis 15.1–12, 17–18, Psalm 27, Philippians 3.17 – 4.1, Luke 13.31–35

Gospel Reading

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written, "One does not live by bread alone."'

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, 'To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written,

"Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him."'

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written,

"He will command his angels concerning you,
to protect you",

and

"On their hands they will bear you up,

so that you will not dash your foot against a stone."'

Jesus answered him, 'It is said, "Do not put the Lord your God to the test."' When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.
