Notices

KEEPING COVID SAFE IN CHURCH

Clearly things are tricky with the virus at the moment, but church services are carrying on, with mask wearing now compulsory again, and keeping socialising to a minimum inside churches. Please take a lateral flow test before you come to church, and obviously stay away if it's positive or you feel at all unwell.

You can collect tests from any local chemist, but you need to get a code first. You can do this by phoning free on 119, or a MUCH quicker way is to make yourself an account by visiting this link: <https://test-for-coronavirus.service.gov.uk/collect-lateral-flow-kits>

ADVANCE NOTICES ABOUT 30TH JANUARY

Two special events on this day. Firstly, as it's a fifth Sunday of the month we have a joint benefice service at 10.30am at St Andrew's Redruth, when our Archdeacon Paul Bryer will be preaching.

In the evening we are marking the patronal feast of St Euny with a service at 6pm, and then a casserole supper straight afterwards (provided for you - donations of money welcome on the night). These evening suppers at St Euny are great fun so do support it if you can. It's helpful to have an idea of numbers, so if you'd like to stay for supper that evening (and we'd LOVE you to stay) please email Lucie on lucierogers28@gmail.com

23RD JANUARY 2022

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY

WELCOME

To those who are strangers and those who are familiar, to those who are confident and those who struggle, to the young and to the not so young, God welcomes you to his house and to his table.

Collect for this Sunday

God of all mercy, your Son proclaimed good news to the poor, release to the captives, and freedom to the oppressed: anoint us with your Holy Spirit and set all your people free to praise you in Christ our Lord.

Readings for this week - RCL page 779

Nehemiah 8.1-3,5-6,8-10, Psalm 19, 1 Corinthians 12.12-31a, Luke 4.14-21

Response to Psalm

Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life.

Post Communion

Almighty Father, whose Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world: may your people, illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of his glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Next week's readings - RCL page 786

Ezekiel 43.27 - 44.4, Psalm 48, 1 Corinthians 13.1-13, Luke 2.22-40

Gospel reading

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
because he has anointed me
to bring good news to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.'

And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, 'Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.'
