Sharing God's welcome; growing disciples

11TH AUGUST 2019
8TH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

WELCOME

To those who are strangers and those who are familiar, to those who are confident and those who struggle, to the young and to the not so young, God welcomes you to his house and to his table.

Collect for this Sunday

Lord God, your Son left the riches of heaven and became poor for our sake: when we prosper save us from pride, when we are needy save us from despair, that we may trust in you alone; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Readings for this week - RCL page 961

Genesis 15.1-6, Psalm 33.12-22, Hebrews 11.1-3, 8-16, Luke 12.32-40

Response to Psalm

Happy the people the Lord has chosen as his own!

Post Communion

Strengthen for service, Lord, the hands that have taken holy things; may the ears which have heard your word be deaf to clamour and dispute; may the tongues which have sung your praise be free from deceit; may the eyes which have seen the tokens of your love shine with the light of hope; and may the bodies which have been fed with your body be refreshed with the fullness of your life; glory to you for ever.

Next week's readings - RCL page 967

Jeremiah 23.23-29, Psalm 82, Hebrews 11.29-12.2, Luke 12.49-56

Gospel

'Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

'Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

'But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.'

EVENTS/NOTICES

Save A Life. Thanks to congregation donations and fund raising together with the support of the British Heart Foundation and AED Donate, St Andrew Redruth and St Euny have each obtained a public access defibrillator to be put in a prominent position outside their church which will be available 24/7 for anyone who needs it.

In order that the health benefit to the community of having this equipment is maximised we will in due course be holding a training event covering how to identify a heart attack, the proper use of CPR and when to use the defibrillator.

Many thanks to Mary Anson who has agreed to present this course and also make her care home at Scorrier available as a venue.

The course is open to members of the congregation from all the team churches and anyone who uses our facilities. If you are interested in attending please email Richard Robinson on robin1674son@btinternet.com so we can plan the event. Thank you.

The Summer Holiday Project* was started in 2006 under the 'Searchlight' umbrella. It has continued every year and is now under the umbrella of the DSB Theatre Project that meets in Christchurch Lanner each week. Due to funding concerns participants are making their own way to the outings and the project leaflet for 2019 is available from Father Peter on 079 038 079 46.

Last Friday of the Month Events. The last Friday of each month brings two events at Christchurch Lanner...

Snack & Chat at 2pm, a chance to eat cake etc. and to just chat! Film Club at 6.30pm when the doors open and 7pm when the film starts.

Advance notices. Mary Anson's famous Crossroads curry lunch has been arranged for Sunday September 8th, 1.00pm for 1.30pm. Christchurch Lanner are hosting a Climate Change / Eco / Green concert at 7pm on Saturday September 14th. More details to follow.

Food Bank - all donations are gratefully received for the food bank. Items we are desperately short of are milk and tinned fish; also tinned potatoes, tinned fruit and pulses. Demand is still high across the various distribution centres. Thank you.

Thought for the week: Make it your mission to spread hope!!
