Sharing God's welcome and growing disciples

11TH OCTOBER 2026

NINETEETH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

WELCOME

To those who are strangers and those who are familiar, to those who are confident and those who struggle, to the young and to the not so young, God welcomes you to his house and to his table.

Collect for this Sunday

Faithful Lord, whose steadfast love never ceases and whose mercies never come to an end: grant us the grace to trust you and to receive the gifts of your love, new every morning, in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Readings for this week - RCL page 387

Isaiah 25.1–9, Psalm 23, Philipians 4.1–9, Matthew 22.1–14

Response to the Psalm

I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Post Communion Prayer

Holy and blessed God, you have fed us with the body and blood of your Son and filled us with your Holy Spirit: may we honour you, not only with our lips but in lives dedicated to the service of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Next week's readings - RCL page 1137

Isaiah 35.3–6 or Acts 16.6–12a, Psalm 147.1–7, 2 Timothy 4.5–17, Luke 10.1–9

Gospel reading

Once more Jesus spoke to the chief priests and Pharisees in parables, saying: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, "Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet." But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, "The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet." Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

'But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, "Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?" And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'

AUTUMN HYGGE - SEASONAL SUNDAY

Join us at Christchurch Lanner this Sunday, 11th October at 2.30pm, for an autumn-inspired Seasonal Sunday all about warmth, welcome and belonging. This month we'll hear the story of Ruth – a story of harvest, kindness, finding a place to belong and discovering that there is always room at the table.

We will get creative with a wonderfully tactile autumn weaving activity, using paper, wool and fabric, decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Choose the colours and textures you like, weave them together and create something completely your own to take home.

Seasonal Sunday is relaxed, informal and for everyone – children, adults, families, people who come to church regularly and people who don't. There is no expectation to sit still, be quiet or know what to do.

GROWING CHURCH - CAN YOU HELP?

Esther is looking to start a new after school club for the children of Treleigh Primary School, years 3-6, volunteers are needed!

'Growing Church' is about inviting children to explore church and faith, growing new disciples from grass roots up. The aim is to build on the relationships already made with some of the families and children at Teatime.

If you have a passion for the children of Treleigh, Esther would love you to become part of the team! Whether that's to help in the kitchen, facilitate a craft table, or be part of the planning team. Growing Church needs you!

If you are interested and would like to know more details, please contact Esther on redruthcurate01@gmail.com or catch her at the end of a service.
