Sharing God's welcome and growing disciples

16TH NOVEMBER 2025

SECOND SUNDAY BEFORE ADVENT

WELCOME

To those who are strangers and those who are familiar, to those who are confident and those who struggle, to the young and to the not so young, God welcomes you to his house and to his table.

Collect for this Sunday

Heavenly Lord, you long for the world's salvation: stir us from apathy, restrain us from excess and revive in us new hope that all creation will one day be healed in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Readings for this week - RCL page 1050

Malachi 4.1–2a, Psalm 98, 2 Thessalonians 3.6–13, Luke 21.5–19

Response to the Psalm

The Lord comes to judge the earth
[and the peoples with equity].

Post Communion Prayer

Gracious Lord, in this holy sacrament you give substance to our hope: bring us at the last to that fullness of life for which we long; through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Next week's readings - RCL page 1054

Jeremiah 23.1–6, Psalm 46, Colossians 1.11–20, Luke 23.33–43

Gospel reading:

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, he said, 'As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.'

They asked him, 'Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?' And he said, 'Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and, "The time is near!" Do not go after them.

'When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.' Then he said to them, 'Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven.

'But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defence in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls.

If you would like to have a name included, forms are now available in all the churches, the Parish Office, or upon request. Each entry is carefully hand-inscribed by a skilled craftsperson and placed under the chosen date of remembrance.

CHRISTMAS CRAFT MARKET

Our annual Christmas Craft Market will be held at St Andrew's Crypt on Friday 28th and Saturday 29th November from 10am to 4pm.

Silversmith, luxury soaps, jewellery, knitted and handmade goods, stocking fillers, decorations, raffles and, of course, homemade cakes. Refreshments and lunches served each day. Come along, bring your family and friends, tell others you know and pick up some wonderful gifts for Christmas.

If you are able to donate a cake to the cake stall or the refreshment area please see Jackie or Sandra. Thank you.

A NATIVITY FESTIVAL WITH A DIFFERENCE!

Alongside our Craft Fair in the Crypt, there is an idea to curate a collection of Nativities from across the town. This would be open alongside the other 'Lights Up' events in the town, it is hoped we will welcome lots of people into the Church to see the nativity scenes.

The Nativity Festival invites people, groups, charities, organisations, and schools to display a Nativity that says something about what the Nativity means to that group. For example, an opticians might have all the characters in glasses! Or groups might choose to be a little more abstract!

I would like to ask for volunteers to commit to be part of a welcoming team for a few hours. Their job would be to welcome people, to offer tea and coffee on the Friday (on the Saturday, the fair will be downstairs), and generally be a welcoming presence (as well as making sure all the displays stay safe.)

Please contact Becca if you might be able to offer a few hours on Friday 28th or Saturday 29th November. Thank you.
