Sharing God's welcome and growing disciples

19TH APRIL 2026

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

WELCOME

To those who are strangers and those who are familiar, to those who are confident and those who struggle, to the young and to the not so young, God welcomes you to his house and to his table.

Collect for this Sunday

Risen Christ, you filled your disciples with boldness and fresh hope: strengthen us to proclaim your risen life and fill us with your peace, to the glory of God the Father.

Readings for this week - RCL page 225

Acts 2.14a, 36–41, Psalm 116.1–3, 10–17,

Response to the Psalm

Gracious is the Lord and righteous;
[our God is full of compassion].

Post Communion Prayer

Living God, your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in all his redeeming work; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Next week's readings - RCL page 229

Acts 2.42–47, Psalm 23, 1 Peter 2.19–25, John 10.1–10

Gospel reading

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, 'What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?' They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, 'Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?' He asked them, 'What things?' They replied, 'The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.' Then he said to them, 'Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?' Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, 'Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.' So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?' That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, 'The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!' Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

SEEN AND UNSEEN – SEASONAL SUNDAY

Sunday 19th April, 2.30pm at Christchurch Lanner.

What can you see?

What is there, but less obvious?

What only appears when the light reaches it?

This April, our Seasonal Sunday explores Seen and Unseen through simple, creative activities for all ages. We will be using solar paper to create images and tracing shadows, noticing what appears, what changes, and what we might otherwise miss.

There is no pressure to get it "right". Just space to notice, create, and reflect. This is an intergenerational, table-based session. It may be a little noisy, a little messy, and very much open to everyone.

BAPTISM PREP SESSION

The next Baptism Prep session is on Sunday 19th April 3pm at St Euny. If you are considering having your little one Baptised, then this is the session for you. Refreshments provided. For more information please contact Becca on revbeccabell@gmail.com

GENEROSITY!!

Our home groups have enjoyed a really lovely and encouraging course throughout Lent exploring generosity. It's been lovely that we've welcomed others to the groups who may not normally join.

We are joining as a "massed group" on Monday 20th April at 7pm at Christchurch Lanner. We will share what we learnt, what challenged and encouraged us, and we'll eat cake! If you didn't join a Lent Group, you are very welcome to come!

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS COURSE

Domestic Violence Awareness Course will be held at 7pm in St Andrew's Crypt on Tuesday 21st April. Compulsory for all DCC / PCC members, interesting and useful for everyone. If you need more information please contact Jim Seth.
