[do not abandon the works of your hands].

Post Communion Prayer

God of all mercy, in this eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing: grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Next week's readings - RCL page 348

Jeremiah 15.15–21, Psalm 26.1–8, Romans 12.9–21, Matthew 16.21–28

Gospel reading

Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.' And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.' Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

If you can spare an hour to help please do come along and bring some equipment with you. There may be areas outside too that would benefit from a sprucing up. We cannot expect Fran and Robert to cover every aspect of church and grounds. This working party will operate during the weeks of August initially. Do come and join us!
